

3M

forced to flee from their homes

8M

lost their livelihoods

17.8M

food insecure

8.4M

at risk of famine

UNDP has developed strong partnerships with the World Bank and the national-based Social Fund for Development and Public Works Project to implement the Yemen Emergency Crisis Response Project (YECRP). Successfully working throughout Yemen, YECRP revitalizes the local economy through large-scale cash-for-work projects, supports small businesses, and repairs community assets that benefit local households and communities.

Funding
USD $300 M

2,017
Projects

300+
Districts

22
Governorates

Livelihood Restoration & Community Asset Rehabilitation

328,579

People provided with income-earning work to help cover their basic needs

7,798,990

Work days created

18%

Internally Displaced Persons/Returnees

19%

Female

32%

Youth

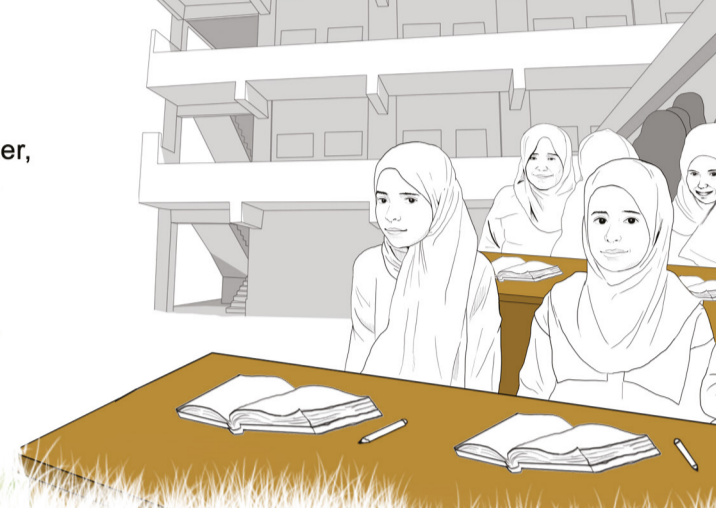

3,010,510

People benefiting from access to water, food, health, education and roads

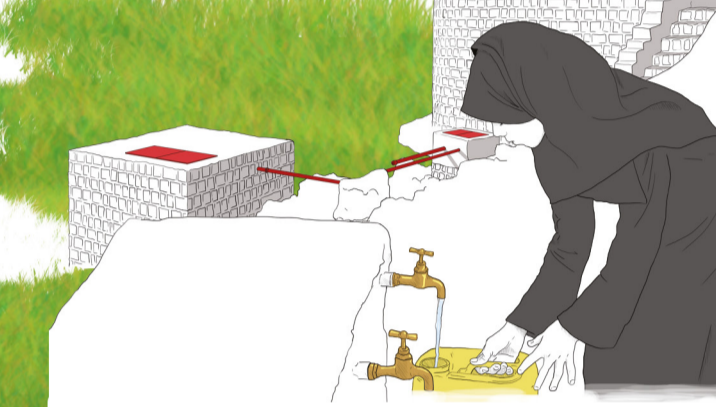

261

Kilometers of roads paved providing safe access to health, food and education

2,189

Classrooms repaired allowing students to continue their education

670,106

Cubic meters of domestic water supply built

14,437

Hectares of farmland protected to keep production possible

8,203

Youth trained and employed in nutrition promotion, school education and community empowerment

30%

Male

70%

Female

Nutrition

220,094

Mothers and children suffering from malnutrition identified and referred for treatment

131,830

Pregnant and Lactating Women

88,264

Children

Education

2,015

Youth trained and employed as school teachers benefiting 60,255 students (49% female) in formal, literacy and adult education

Youth

1,098

Youth-led projects financed to carry out community services such as health awareness, planting trees, paving roads and education

6,701

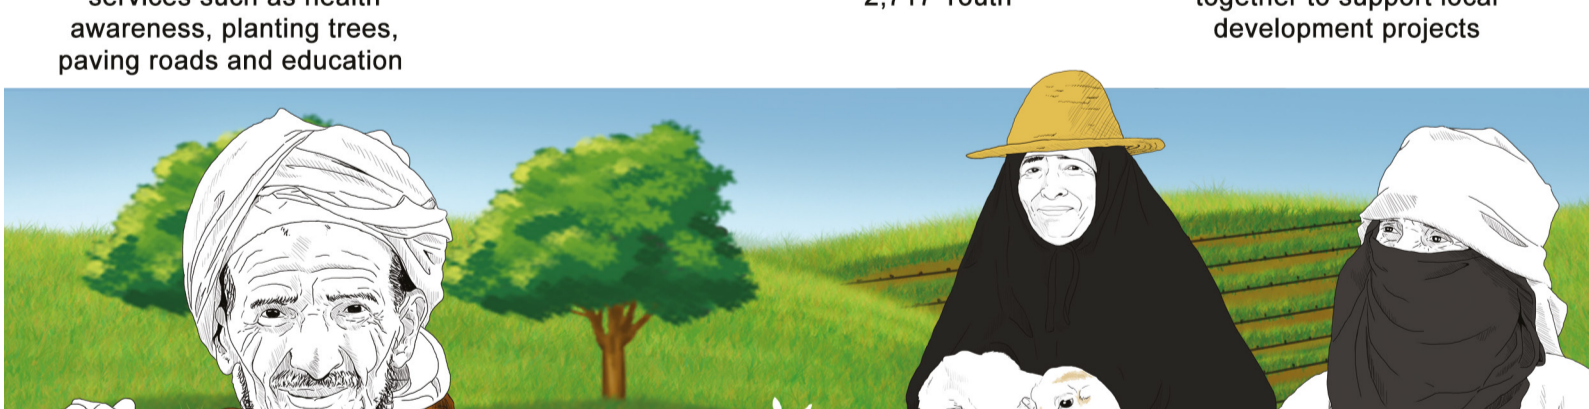

Self-help youth community initiatives implemented

151,927

Work days created for 2,717 Youth

1,900

Village Cooperative Councils established to bring people together to support local development projects

Farmers

3,346

Farmers in deprived rural areas supported in modern farming equipment and practices to improve productivity and save on fuel and water

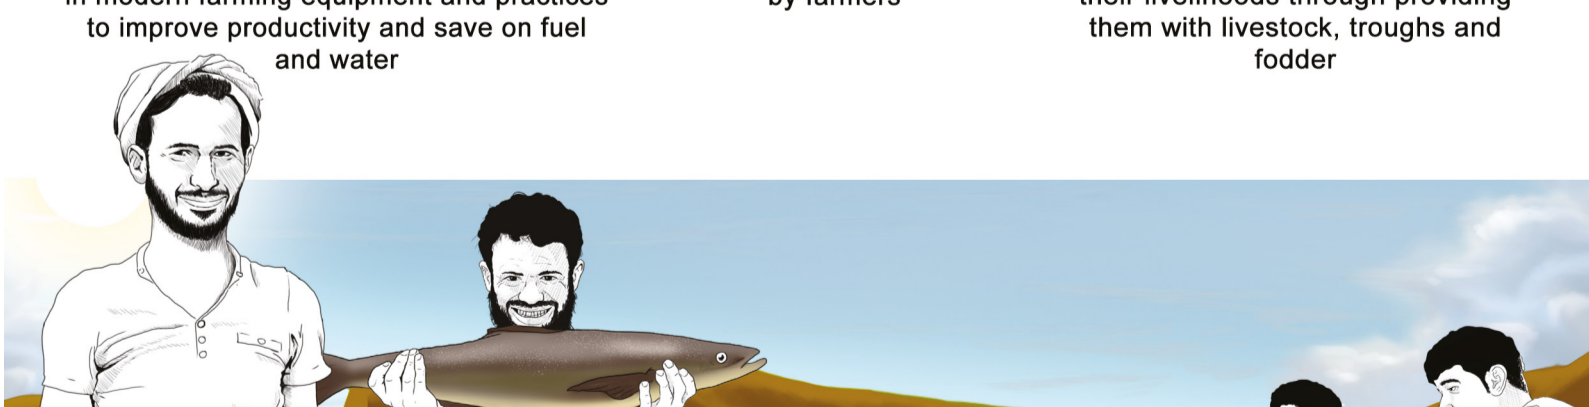

Livestock

42,801

Additional jobs created by farmers

880

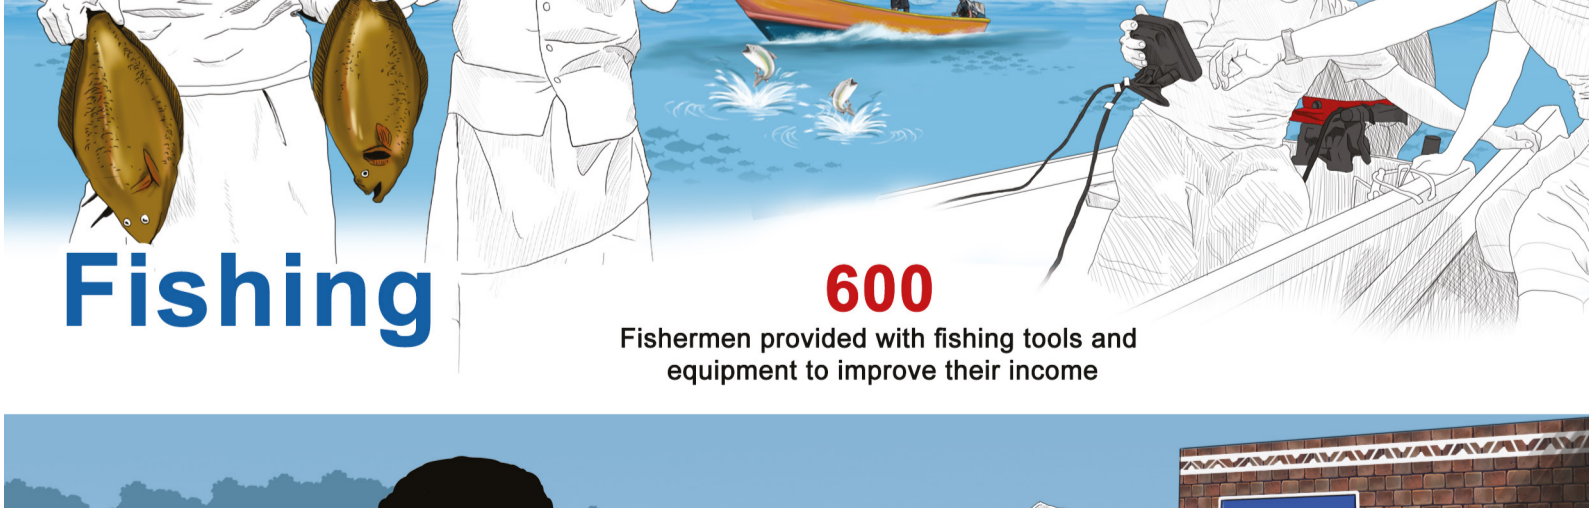

Women supported to improve their livelihoods through providing them with livestock, troughs and fodder

Fishing

600

Fishermen provided with fishing tools and equipment to improve their income

Microfinance Institutions (MFIs)

9 MFIs

Funded to continue providing financial services to 83,705 clients

3,819

Small and Micro Enterprises Received grants to offset their debts and sustain their business operations

53% Female